THE CHILDREN'S PRIENDS.

School Commissioner Edward J. H. Tamers has one advantage on a cold in color with the feit. morning or on a chilly, wet one, over many worthy citizens of this city. It is this: If Mr. Tamsen on one of these inclement mornings abould chance to think | white feathers, and vice verce. of the little boys and girls clustered around the barred school-house gates and distress, will not pity the small sufferers and heave a sympathetic sigh over the thought of them.

Other citizens who think of the little boys and girls at the school gates suffering, with red noses and blue fingers, will wish that they could slip the bolts and let the children in. The spectacle pains them. Here is School Commissioner Tamsen's advantage-he escapes the pain. It is possible that the good citizens, especially those who are parents, may be tempted to think that it such a School Commissioner were relieved of his office it would serve him right,

DOES THIS SETTLE IT?

Mayor GRANT's demand on the Census Bureau for an official recounting of New York City has been met by a very snubby letter from the Acting Superintendent of Consus, A. F. Cumps. He tells the Mayor that the Bureau has "entire confidence" in the enumeration it made of New York City, that he selected no one to supervise the police count, that no proper" proofs of incorrectness in the Federal count have been submitted, and concludes by telling the Mayor that he has mighty little time in which to submit any, as the results of the official Census will soon be announced and will be adhered to.

This is clear and what might have been work? If they do, is any inference but one possible?

More talk about the Mafia is started by the killing of Chief of Police HENNESSY in New Orleans by an Italian blackguard. Such talk is silly and unnecessary. The daugerous character of low Italians whose passions find their readiest and tracst expression in the thrust of a stiletto does not need to be enhanced by pleturing them as members of a Thughke organization whose aim is organized destruction. The Mafia is a gruesome "fake," It does not exist in America. Look to the undoubted actuality and do not let us mourn about a myth.

When one sees the tugs, propellers and myriad other craft which scurry about the bay and harbor of New York, it seems remarkable that there are not more collisions. But such casualties should be minimized to the last degree. A tug cut in two by a propeller yesterday and the loss of two men call attention to the need of constant watchfulness on the harbor
